

10 MINUTES CAN SAVE A LIFE!

Suicidal crises are often short-lived—but access to lethal means can make the difference between life and death. 3/4 of suicide attempts are unplanned, and nearly half occur within 10 minutes of first thinking about it.

